

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capital
Boise

WHEREAS, April 2022 marks the 54th anniversary of the passage of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, commonly known as the Federal Fair Housing Act; and

WHEREAS, the Idaho Human Rights Commission Act has prohibited discrimination in housing since 1969; and

WHEREAS, equal opportunity for all – regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin – is a fundamental goal of our nation and our state; and

WHEREAS, equal access to housing is an important component of this goal – as fundamental as the right to equal opportunity in education and employment; and

WHEREAS, housing is a critical component of family and community health and stability; and

WHEREAS, housing choice determines our children’s access to education, our ability to seek and retain employment, the cultural benefits we enjoy, our exposure to crime and drugs, our access to quality health care, and the overall productivity of Idaho’s workforce; and

WHEREAS, the laws of this nation and our state seek to ensure such equality of choice for all transactions involving housing; and

WHEREAS, ongoing education, outreach and monitoring are key to raising awareness of fair housing principals, practices, rights and responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, only through continued cooperation, commitment and support of all Idahoans can barriers to fair housing be removed;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRAD LITTLE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2022 to be in Idaho, and I encourage all Idaho citizens to join me in this special observance.

FAIR HOUSING MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 12th day of April, in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two.

BRAD LITTLE
GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
